NASHUA MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO
REENTERING THE UNITED STATES AFTER BEING DEPORTED

CONCORD, NEW HAMPSHIRE – United States Attorney Tom Colantuono and Department of Homeland Security, Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement Special Agent in Charge Robin Avers, reports that Vincente Ramirez-Sanchez pled guilty in federal court today to reentering the United States after having been deported to his home country of Mexico. Ramirez-Sanchez is 27-years-old and formerly resided on West Hollis Street in Nashua.

A sentencing hearing was scheduled for February 20, 2004, at the United States District Courthouse in Concord. Ramirez-Sanchez is facing a maximum prison term of 2 years and a fine of $250,000. The court ordered that he be detained in the custody of the United States Marshal pending his sentencing hearing.

United States Attorney Tom Colantuono said, "This case is representative of our continuing commitment to aggressively prosecute criminal violations of the nation's immigration laws."

This case was investigated by the Department of Homeland Security, Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement. It was prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Mark S. Zuckerman.
